Forecast for Friday 06 Nov 2020

Weather: Extensive low cloud will affect the area throughout the morning and into the early part of the afternoon. Chance of some outbreaks of drizzle within this, most likely through the early part of the morning. Through the afternoon the cloud will break up to allow some sunny spells, particularly in the south. Skies will be largely clear by late evening. Southwesterly winds will continue to ease through the day.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: Very low through the morning, remaining low in the north during the afternoon but high in the south with good cloud clearance.

Visibility: Poor at first, becoming good at low levels through the morning and at higher levels in the south during the afternoon. Remaining poor or moderate at higher levels in the north until evening.
